About the FDIC Seidman Center

The L. William Seidman Center at Virginia Square is a multi-building complex. The Virginia Square site is located in an urban neighborhood on 9.5 acres of land at 3501 Fairfax Drive in Arlington, Virginia.

Please note that due to limited space, parking will only be available for event participants who will be staying at the conference center hotel.

The Seidman Center is easily accessible by public transportation. Take the Blue line to Roselyn and then the Orange Line to Virginia Square.

The Seidman Center is also about a 12 minute cab ride from Washington Reagan National Airport (DCA).

FDIC training facilities are located in the seven-story office building. There are numerous restaurants, service establishments and shopping in the surrounding area.
