Prospective beneficiary groups should be named and it is also good practice to name the individual or organizational role with lead responsibility. (Repeat this element as many times as necessary to identify key stakeholders.)

Explanation of goal:
Your agency’s Open Government Plan should explain in detail how your agency will improve transparency. It should describe steps the agency will take to conduct its work more openly and publish its information online, including any proposed changes to internal management and administrative policies to improve transparency. Specifically, as part of your Plan to enhance information dissemination, your agency should describe how it is currently meeting its legal information dissemination obligations, and how it plans to improve its existing information dissemination practices by providing:

Objective i.: Action Plan

Summary:
A brief description of the intended result of your action plan.

STAKEHOLDER
Name of stakeholder for this objective

Prospective beneficiary groups should be named and it is also good practice to name the individual or organizational role with lead responsibility. (Repeat this element as many times as necessary to identify key stakeholders.)

Explanation of objective:
A strategic action plan for transparency that (1) inventories agency high-value information currently available for download; (2) fosters the public’s use of this information to increase public knowledge and promote public scrutiny of agency services; and (3) identifies high value information not yet available and establishes a reasonable timeline for publication online in open formats with specific target dates. High-value information is information that can be used to increase agency accountability and responsiveness; improve public knowledge of the agency and its operations; further the core mission of the agency; create economic opportunity; or respond to need and demand as identified through public consultation.

Objective ii.: Data Publication

Summary:
A brief description of the intended result of your data publication initiative.

STAKEHOLDER
Name of stakeholder for this objective

Prospective beneficiary groups should be named and it is also good practice to name the individual or organizational role with lead responsibility. (Repeat this element as many times as necessary to identify key stakeholders.)
Explanation of objective:
In cases where the agency provides public information maintained in electronic format, a plan for timely publication of the underlying data. This underlying data should be in an open format and as granular as possible, consistent with statutory responsibilities and subject to valid privacy, confidentiality, security, or other restrictions. Your agency should also identify key audiences for its information and their needs, and endeavor to publish high-value information for each of those audiences in the most accessible forms and formats. In particular, information created or commissioned by the Government for educational use by teachers or students and made available online should clearly demarcate the public’s right to use, modify, and distribute the information.

Objective iii.: Transparency Initiatives

Summary:
A brief description of the intended result of your transparency initiatives.

STAKEHOLDER
Name of stakeholder for this objective
Prospective beneficiary groups should be named and it is also good practice to name the individual or organizational role with lead responsibility. (Repeat this element as many times as necessary to identify key stakeholders.)

Explanation of objective:
Details as to how your agency is complying with transparency initiative guidance such as Data.gov, eRulemaking, IT Dashboard, Recovery.gov, and USAspending.gov. Where gaps exist, the agency should detail the steps the agency is taking and the timing to meet the requirements for each initiative.

Objective iv.: Actions and Milestones

Summary:
A brief description of the intended result of your actions and milestones.

STAKEHOLDER
Name of stakeholder for this objective
Prospective beneficiary groups should be named and it is also good practice to name the individual or organizational role with lead responsibility. (Repeat this element as many times as necessary to identify key stakeholders.)

Explanation of objective:
Details of proposed actions to be taken, with clear milestones, to inform the public of significant actions and business of your agency, such as through agency public meetings, briefings, press conferences on the Internet, and periodic national town hall meetings.
Objective v.: Records Management Website

Summary:
A brief description of the intended result of your records management website.

STAKEHOLDER
Name of stakeholder for this objective

Prospective beneficiary groups should be named and it is also good practice to name
the individual or organizational role with lead responsibility. (Repeat this element
as many times as necessary to identify key stakeholders.)

Explanation of objective:
A link to a publicly available website that shows how your agency is meeting its existing records management requirements. These requirements serve as the foundation for your agency’s records management program, which includes such activities as identifying and scheduling all electronic records, and ensuring the timely transfer of all permanently valuable records to the National Archives.

Objective vi.: FOIA Requests and Website

Summary:
A brief description of the intended result of your FOIA website.

STAKEHOLDER
Name of stakeholder for this objective

Prospective beneficiary groups should be named and it is also good practice to name
the individual or organizational role with lead responsibility. (Repeat this element
as many times as necessary to identify key stakeholders.)

Explanation of objective:
A link to a website that includes (1) a description of your staffing, organizational structure, and process for analyzing and responding to FOIA requests; (2) an assessment of your agency’s capacity to analyze, coordinate, and respond to such requests in a timely manner, together with proposed changes, technological resources, or reforms that your agency determines are needed to strengthen your response processes; and (3) if your agency has a significant backlog, milestones that detail how your agency will reduce its pending backlog of outstanding FOIA requests by at least ten percent each year. Providing prompt responses to FOIA requests keeps the public apprised of specific informational matters they seek.

Objective vii.: Organizational Web Page

Summary:
A brief description of the intended result of your organizational web page.
